III. FACTS

7. John W. Nuzum, Jr. was Janet T. Nuzum Green's first husband. John Nuzum died in 1955.

8. At his death, John Nuzum's Public Service Company of Indiana, Inc. ("PSC Indiana") stock shares were transferred to his widow Janet T. Nuzum. PSC Indiana merged into Cinergy Corporation which was subsequently acquired by Duke Energy.

9. After Janet Green remarried, the subject stock certificates were reissued to "John W. Nuzum Jr. c/o Janet Talbot Green Heir EST" Duke Energy Account No. XX8012.

10. Throughout the history of the Duke Energy stock, Duke Energy reported the payment and/or reinvestment of dividends to the IRS through 1099-DIVs attached to Janet Green's SSN and home address.

11. On November 29, 2006, Duke Energy announced to its shareholders, including Janet Green, that Duke Energy had spun off its natural gas business into a separate company, Spectra Energy Corp. As a result of the spin-off, Janet Green received one-half share of Spectra Energy stock for each share of Duke Energy stock.

12. On October 10, 2011, Janet Green was notified that Spectra Energy had appointed Broadridge as the transfer agent and issuer for her Spectra common stock. All of Janet Green's account information was transferred to Broadridge.

13. In 2017, Spectra Energy merged with Enbridge Inc. Upon information and belief, Janet Green's Spectra stock was reissued for equal shares of Enbridge stock.

14. Upon information and belief, all Duke Energy and/or Spectra Energy and/or Enbridge stock dividends would have been reinvested.

15. On April 26, 2024, Janet Green died. At her death, all Duke Energy and/or Spectra Energy and/or Enbridge stock became an asset of the Estate of Janet Green.

16. On November 5, 2024, November 20, 2024, and February 24, 2025, Executrix Welsh caused correspondence to be delivered to Duke Energy Investor Relations and Broadridge as part of her statutory obligation to account for and manage the assets of the Janet Green Estate. After being requested to do so, Duke Energy and/or Broadridge and/or someone acting on their behalf refused to provide the Estate with information regarding the Estate's stock and has otherwise exercised control over such stock in a manner adverse to the Estate's interests.

IV. CAUSES OF ACTION

Conversion

17. Executrix Jennifer Welsh incorporates by reference all allegations of this Complaint.

18. Under Mississippi law, all assets held by a person become assets of the person's estate at death. At her death, all Duke Energy and/or Spectra Energy and/or Enbridge stock owned by Janet Green became assets of the Janet Green Estate.

19. The subject stock represented Janet Green's ownership in the subject company(s) and, therefore, was not a debt owed to Janet Green.

20. After being properly notified, Defendants and/or their agents knew that the subject stock was the property of the Janet Green Estate and that Defendants had a duty to deliver such stock to Executrix Welsh. Instead, Defendants and/or their agents, with purposeful intent, chose to exercise dominion and control over such stock in a manner adverse to the Estate and/or to the exclusion of the Estate's interest.

21. Defendants and/or their agents are liable to the Estate for the tort of conversion

V. RESPONDEAT SUPERIOR

22. Executrix Jennifer Welsh incorporates by reference all allegations of this Complaint.

23. Duke Energy and/or Broadridge and/or Enbridge are liable for the actions and/or inactions of each other and/or the actions and/or inactions of their agents and employees under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

VI. DAMAGES

24. Executrix Jennifer Welsh incorporates by reference all allegations of this Complaint.

25. The Estate claims as damages all financial losses related to the unlawful and unauthorized conversion of stock in an amount to be proven at trial.

26. The actions and/or inactions described herein were willful, intentional, and/or so grossly negligent so as to entitle the Estate to an award of punitive damages against Defendants.

WHEREFORE PREMISES CONSIDERED, Executrix Jennifer Welsh, on behalf of the Estate of Janet Green, demands judgment against Duke Energy Corporation, Broadridge Corporate Issuer Solutions, Inc. and Enbridge Inc. for all damages to which the Estate is legally entitled, including actual damages, punitive damages, attorney's fees, costs, prejudgment interest, and post judgment interest.

DATED this the 24th day of June, 2025.

Respectfully submitted,

By: /s/ C. Victor Welsh, III
